

creating prosperity in the United Kingdom

five ways chevron's 50-year partnership with the United Kingdom is creating a positive economic ripple effect

job growth

51,700+ jobs

supported by Chevron operations (2015) enough to fill around 615 double decker buses jobs supported

2% Chevron employees and contractors	21% direct jobs
25% indirect jobs	52% induced jobs

Chevron's economic activity supported thousands of jobs across the United Kingdom (2015) gross domestic product

$2.7 billion+

added to the United Kingdom's GDP in 2015 as a result of Chevron investments and projects local suppliers

79 percent of Chevron's U.K. spend on goods and services went to U.K.-based suppliers in 2015 government revenue

$5.9 billion+

generated in government revenue over 10 years through 2015 in the form of tax contributions

In 2015, Chevron commissioned a study that was independently administered by Aberdeen & Grampian Chamber of Commerce in collaboration with the Fraser of Allander Institute to provide an assessment of Chevron's overall economic impact in the United Kingdom.

chevron.com/creatingprosperity

© 2017 Chevron Corporation. All rights reserved.